

Form ADV Part 3 – Client Relationship Summary

Date: 03/30/2026

Item 1: INTRODUCTION

REINHART PARTNERS, LLC (Reinhart) is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission offering advisory accounts and services. This document gives you a summary of the types of services and fees we offer. Please visit www.investor.gov/CRS for free, simple tools to research firms and for educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2: RELATIONSHIPS AND SERVICES

Questions to ask us: Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not? How will you choose investments to recommend to me? What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What investment services and advice can you provide me? Our firm primarily offers portfolio management services to retail clients. In some cases, this is offered through a third party sponsored wrap program. We review your portfolio, investment strategy, and investments. As part of our standard services, we typically monitor client accounts on a daily basis. Our firm has discretionary management without any material limitations. We limit the types of investments that are recommended since not every type of investment vehicle is needed to create an appropriate portfolio. Our standard minimum account size is $1,000,000 but smaller accounts will be accepted based on a number of factors. Please also see our Form ADV Part 2A (“Brochure”), specifically Items 4 & 7.

Item 3: FEES, COSTS, CONFLICTS, AND STANDARD OF CONDUCT

Questions to ask us: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me? What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have? How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

What fees will I pay? Our fees vary depending on the services you receive. Additionally, the amount of assets in your account affects our advisory fee; the more assets you have in your advisory account, the more you will pay us and thus we have an incentive to increase those assets in order to increase our fee. Fees for services rendered are based on a percentage of assets under management and are payable in advance, unless otherwise stipulated in writing. You pay our fees even if you do not have any transactions and the advisory fee paid to us varies based on the type of investments selected. Please also see Items 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 of our Brochure.

Third Party Costs: Some investments (e.g., mutual funds, variable annuities, etc.) impose additional fees (e.g., transactional fees and product-level fees) that reduce the value of your investment over time. You may also pay fees to a custodian that will hold your assets. Additionally, you may pay transaction fees when we buy and sell an investment for your account. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. Please also see our Brochure for additional details.

Conflicts of Interest: When we act as your investment adviser, we are held to a fiduciary standard that means we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are examples of how our interests can conflict with yours:

- Because our advisory fee is based on the value of the assets in your account, we have an incentive to encourage you to increase the assets in your account (for example, by transferring assets from other accounts or investing additional cash) in order to increase the fees we receive.
- We are affiliated with Baird Financial Corporation and its broker-dealer affiliate. This affiliation creates an incentive for us to provide advisory services to clients of that affiliated firm, or to maintain that relationship, because we benefit economically from it. We address this conflict through our fiduciary duty and by providing advice that is consistent with your investment objectives and restrictions.

How do your financial professionals make money? Primarily, we and our financial professionals benefit from the advisory services we provide to you because of the advisory fees we receive from you. This compensation may vary based on different factors, such as those listed above in this Item. Please also see Item 10 of our Brochure for additional details.

Item 4: DISCIPLINARY HISTORY

Questions to ask us: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history? No, neither Reinhart Partners nor any of its financial professionals have any legal or disciplinary events. Visit <https://www.investor.gov/> for a free, simple search tool to research us and our financial professionals.

Item 5: ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Questions to ask us: Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

Additional information regarding Reinhart and its services is available in our Part 2A Brochure at <https://adviserinfo.sec.gov/firm/summary/106432>. You can also call your representative at 262-241-2020 for a copy of this Client Relationship Summary (or to discuss any concerns) or look on our website at: <https://www.reinhartpartners.com/>. If you have concerns about how your representative is treating you, you may also speak with our Chief Compliance Officer at the same number.
